Del siglo XIX al XXI

Paco Peregrín

ALMERÍA, 1976

A graduate in fine arts from the University of Seville, he furthered his training at the International Center of Photography of New York, the Central Saint Martins of London, the Contemporary Andalusian Art Center (Seville), the Fundació Pilar i Joan Miró a Mallorca, the Complutense University of Madrid, the University of Santiago de Compostela, and the photography academy EFTI in Madrid. Presently he lives in the Spanish capital, where he produces personal projects and fashion, beauty, and advertisement photography for magazines such as Vogue or Harper's Bazaar and clients such as Dior, Chanel, L'Oréal Paris, or Adidas. He has delivered workshops and seminars at the Instituto Europeo di Design (Madrid), the Andalusian Center of Photography (Almería), Arteleku, ESDMGA (University of Vigo), during PHotoEspaña, and in EFTI, among other places.

Focusing on international advertising, artistic and fashion photography, his cutting-edge images reveal a retro-futuristic character and the influence of cultural and aesthetic trends typical of Flemish painting, the Baroque (so prevalent in the city of Seville, where he resided while he was training), or contemporary artistic movements and mass media. He informs his creations with his knowledge in graphic design, communication and drama.

In recent years he has taken part in the group exhibitions Art on the Edge: the New Contemporary (Vered Gallery, New York, 2011), Génesis (H₂O Gallery, Barcelona, 2011), Mundos Propios (Own worlds, Valentín de Madariaga Foundation of Seville, 2012), and New Fashion Photography (Contributed, Berlin, 2013), and he has presented Beautiful Monster in the Visionairs Gallery of Paris (2012). He has also exhibited his work in museums such as the Contemporary Andalusian Art Center (Seville), the Cristóbal Balenciaga Museum (Getaria, San Sebastián), or the Centre de Cultura Contemporània of Barcelona. In 2008 he was awarded the National Prize for Professional Photography LUX Gold in the category of "Fashion and Beauty." — AGM
